Elderly Man Found Unharmed After Eight Hour Search

An 85-year-old man was found late Monday night, eight hours after he walked away from his home along the [REDACTED] block of Brodbeck Road in York County's Manheim Township. Southwestern Regional Police say [REDACTED], who suffers from dementia, was located in a densely wooded area near the Mason-Dixon line by a search dog team. [REDACTED] was taken from the rugged terrain on an ATV to a waiting ambulance and was transported to York Hospital. A family dog was found by Mr. [REDACTED]'s side. The effort involved technical rescue teams, the Mason-Dixon Rescue Dog Team and state police helicopters from Pennsylvania and Maryland.
